

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APOLLO ENTERPRISE SOLUTIONS, LTD. (AES) LAUNCHES TRUESECURE 2.2, ADVANCED FRAUD PREVENTION SYSTEM FOR FINANCIAL SELF-SERVE APPLICATIONS

Los Angeles, CA, July 10, 2013, AES, a leading provider of advanced interactive software solutions for banking transactions, has launched TRUESecure™ 2.2, its next generation fraud prevention system for financial self-service applications.

The system is already being used by AES in conjunction with TRUECollect™ 2.2, its industry-leading Agent Emulation™ system for credit portfolio management. Since its implementation, AES' TRUESecure™ 2.2 fraud prevention solution has consistently thwarted intrusion attempts and fraudulent usage of the TRUECollect™ 2.2 service.

“Our TRUE™ suite of Agent Emulation™ products for financial self-service applications depends not only on delivering high customer conversion rates, but also on preventing fraudulent access to the systems,” said Joseph Konowiecki, Chairman and CEO of AES. He continued, “TRUESecure™ 2.2 has proven itself as an exceptionally versatile fraud prevention tool which we are now including with all of our Agent Emulation™ system implementations.”

About TRUESecure 2.2

The TRUESecure™ 2.2 Advanced Fraud Prevention System can interface seamlessly with leading fraud prevention systems and services. Additionally, AES utilizes a propriety SaaS software and infrastructure security design, deployed by global leaders in the Gartner Magic Quadrant Managed Hosting Category, which we feel creates a complete Advanced Fraud Prevention System at every critical touch point from consumer verification to compressive messaging confirmation of the financial transaction.
